

2011 ALBC Conference Scholarship Application

Through the generosity of the William JJ Gordon Family Foundation, the American Livestock Breeds Conservancy is pleased to offer scholarships to several members in need that wish to attend the annual conference to be held in Wichita, KS November 10-12, 2011. The scholarship will cover the cost of a full conference registration, one pre-conference workshop, and provide $300 towards travel expenses.

Qualifications

To qualify, you must be able to show you:

- Are an ALBC member in good standing at the time of application
- Require economic assistance in order to attend the conference
- Submit application including required small essay
- Immediately after the event are willing to share your experiences from the conference in the form of an article for ALBC News

Application Process

Scholarship applications must be received no later than July 1st, 2011 and scholarship winners will notified no later than August 2011. Applications will be reviewed by committee and awarded based on the ALBC membership status, financial need of the applicant, contributions to rare breed conservation, and potential to give back to the field.

Scholarship Application Form

1. Name:
2. Mailing address:
3. Telephone:
4. Email address

Please submit an essay of no more than 500 words that describes:

- Why do you want to attend the conference?
- Why did you apply for the scholarship?
- What is your current involvement with rare breeds?
- How will you use or share with others what you learn at the conference?
- How are you financing the remaining costs?
- Tell us if there is anything else we should know about you.

Please email completed applications to jberanger@albc-usa.org or mail them to PO Box 477, Pittsboro, NC 27312.